[image]

Sagittarius: They show kindness towards everyone, even the ones that act rude to them. I used to think that they are a loud obnoxious idiot which i regret thinking that way about them. Now that i have learned how they really are like, honestly i consider them a good friend.

Aquarius: We don't talk that much but when we do, we get along pretty well.

Aries: My homie and bestie. Me, them and Estonia always hang out together and never do an activity without eachother, i'm glad to have a loyal friend like Aries

Capricorn: We debate a lot on stupid things like "Is water wet?", Capricorn gives me crackhead energy because of how dumb their points are in arguments.

Taurus: I sometimes ask them for small favors and they always help me with them, i would like to get to know them more but i never get a chance to talk to them.

Gemini: No Gemini, having multiple personalities is not a personality trait ya bi- (This is a joke ily guys ☘)

Cancer: They didn't do anything special to catch my intrest, so i could care less.

Virgo: Pretty cool, we usually do housework together and make small chats while we are at it, pretty chill person.

Libra: Makes a lot of dumb jokes which can get annoying sometimes, but they do have a good taste in games and music so i usually ask them for some good games and songs, they suggested me these 2 games YTTD and Danganronpa which are pretty good. So yeah thanks Libra.

Scorpio: Very good at aesthetics, fashion, baking and decorating. So i usually ask them for help at something like that for example; I had once a date with Estonia at a coffee shop but i had like no idea what gift i wanted to give to Estonia so when i told Scorpio they offered to help me with that, at the date Estonia loved the gift so i owe it all to Scorpio for the help. Thank you.

Pisces: An absolute angel and honest to god how can someone hate Pisces? I have to protect this pure soul.

Leo: Not as "scary" or "mean" they made Leo out to be, they are really a normal person that tends to make some disturbing dark jokes. We also play Among us sometimes and i always get killed off first when Leo's the imposter. So yeah screw you for that Leo :"(
